Fred Crogan Painfully Burned About the Face and Neck-Serious Accident to Tommy Devanney-An Interesting Opinion from Dr. A. Kolb,

A kettle of boiling water was upse from the kitchen stove in the residence of James Crogan, of Cedar avenue, yesterday, and Fred, the oldest son of Mr Crogan, was painfully burned about the neck and face. The boy is the bright 12-year-old son of Mr. Crogan, of the Scranton Brewing company. Dr. Manly was sent for and dressed the boy's wounds.

Another Boy's Mishap. Tommy Devanney, of Prospect avenue, a boy 12 years old, sustained an in jury yesterday that will result in the loss of his right leg. He foolishly attempted to jump on a passing barouche work was a complete success and ex- and fell in the attempt. His leg got caught in the hind wheel and the bone were so mashed that nothing could be done to prevent the loss of the limb Drs. Manly and Haggerty were sent for and after an examination they decided that it would be better to have the boy removed to the Lackawanna hospital.

Jermyn Borough Wants First Street Repaired Right Away.

The authorities of Jermyn borough through Attorney I. H. Burns, Saturday, filed a bill in equity against the Carbondale Traction company and the Lackawanna Valley Rapid Transit company to compel these corporations to keep in good repair First street, in that borough, which, it is alleged, the companies are compelled to do by the terms of the franchise the Traction company received from the borough

These repairs have been neglected and the bill asks the court to compel the Traction company to put First avenue in good repair within reasonable time, and if is fails to do this that the road shall cease to be operated until such time as the proper repairs are made,
